We Support Our Team

FALL 1969 was filled with many exciting things. One of the biggest, of course, was Homecoming. The festivities started on the evening of September 23, with the coronation of Queen Carol and King Tom. For their entertainment, skits were presented with the seventh grade winning with "Little Orange Riding Hood." Then the King and Queen led everyone in a pep-fest at a huge bonfire, built by the senior boys. The excitement mounted the next day with the parade in the afternoon and a pep fest in the town square. The seniors were elated with the prize for their window, "Let's Give 'Em the Devil." The sophomores were equally happy about winning top prize for their float, "House of Victory."
